Activities to do at home with your children

Take a look at our activities that will enable you to create low-cost fun crafts for the whole family at home.

Edible chia seed slime

What you'll need:

- 2 tablespoons chia seeds
- 1 cup water
- 1 cup cornflour
- Food colouring (optional)
- Large bowl or tub with clingfilm/lid for tub

How to make your slime:

1. Put seeds into large bowl/tub. If using food colouring, add it to your water, then, pour water over top of seeds, these need to be left in the fridge to soak for at least 2/3 hours, preferably overnight. (Try to stir after an hour).
 2. When seeds are ready, take out of fridge, if clumpy give them a stir, then, add cornflour to the bowl and begin to mix, once it is mostly combined, take out and begin to knead with your hands.
 3. If the mix is dry and crumbly, add a little more water, if it is too wet, add a little more cornflour. Once mixed properly you should have a smooth ball that is stretchy and pliable.
- The children can happily stretch, shape, knead, squash and mould for hours. As well as being fun, this helps to develop motor skills and acts as a mood calmer. As this slime is edible and safe for children you don't need to worry about it being put in little mouths.
 - However, being edible also means it is perishable and so should be kept in the fridge when not being played with and is best discarded after around four days. As the slime is made from natural ingredients it is fully biodegradable so it can be composted or even planted in your garden. If the slime starts to dry out, simply wet your hands before kneading for a minute or two, and it'll soon return to its stretchy, slimy best.

Firework Printing

What you'll need:

- Black Paper
- Paint
- Tray for paint
- Pipe cleaners, straws or kitchen roll centre

How to:

- Take four pipe cleaners, fold them in half, twist the top and then fan the bottom out. You can also use straws or an empty kitchen roll
- Dip your creation into the paint and move it around so it's all covered.
- Print it onto the black paper and add some glitter.

Make a Sock Snowman

What you'll need:

- A white sock
- Pipe cleaner or ribbon for scarf
- Googly eyes or buttons
- Orange pom pom
- Black pom poms for mouth and buttons
- Oats
- Cup, spoon and string or wool

How to make your Snowman Sock:

1. Turn the sock inside out. Put the foot of the sock inside the cup and fold the sock over the edge of the cup to hold it in place. Now fill your sock $\frac{3}{4}$ full with oats, make sure they are pushed down to the bottom and compact.
 2. Tie the sock with a tight knot, make sure the knot is close to top of the oats. Next, roll down the top of the sock to form the snowman's hat.
 3. Your snowman will need a scarf so, tie on a pipe cleaner or ribbon, which ever you choose to use.
 4. Now you can add his detail; Glue in place his eyes, nose, mouth, and don't forget his buttons. If you don't have buttons or pom poms, you can always draw on him with felt tips.
 5. Now your snowman is all ready for play.
- To give a different sensory feel you could make different snowmen with different textures.
 - Instead of oats, use rice or cotton wool, for a sensory smell add some lavender oil.
 - Why not make your own little family of snowmen?
